Upon certain Events of Default set forth in the convertible debentures, all outstanding principal and accrued interest under the convertible debentures will become automatically due and payable, including the filing of any petition for relief under any bankruptcy law or any assignment for the benefit of creditors.

A form of the Convertible Debenture is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 3.02 Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities.

On October 31, 2007, the Company sold additional Units, which each consist of a convertible debenture with a principal amount of $10,000 and a warrant to purchase 50,000 shares of common stock of the Company, in the aggregate amount of $415,000. The Company sold the Units in the additional closing of a private placement offering in which the Company could receive gross proceeds from the sale of Units of a minimum of $1,000,000 and up to a maximum of $2,000,000, less 10% commissions and expense reimbursements (the "Offering"). The Company previously sold Units in the aggregate amount of $1,075,000 in the initial closing of the Offering on September 26, 2007, and received a total of $1,490,000 in aggregate gross proceeds in the Offering.

The Units were offered and sold in the Offering only to persons who meet the definition of "accredited investor" set forth in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or to persons who are not "U.S. persons" as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act, pursuant to exemptions from registration provided by Rule 506 of Regulation D of the Securities Act and Regulation S of the Securities Act.

Convertible Debentures

Each Unit includes a convertible debenture in a principal amount of $10,000, bearing interest at 8% per annum with a maturity date of three years from the closing date of the Offering. Upon the maturity date, all principal and interest will be paid in full or converted into common stock of the Company at a conversion price of the lower of $0.20 per share or the average trading price for the 10 days immediately prior to the Maturity Date, subject to certain conditions being fulfilled at the time of conversion. Holders of the convertible debentures may elect to convert the convertible debentures into common stock of the Company at $0.20 per share at any time following the closing date of the Offering.

If during the term of the convertible debentures (i) the Company fails to remain subject to the reporting requirement under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 for a period of at least 45 consecutive days, (ii) the Company fails to materially comply with the reporting requirements under the Exchange Act for a period of 45 consecutive days, (iii) the Company's common stock is no longer quoted on the Over the Counter Bulletin Board or listed or quoted on a securities exchange, or (iv) a Change of Control is consummated, the Company will be required upon the election of the holder to redeem the convertible debentures in an amount equal to 150% of the principal amount of the convertible debenture. "Change of Control" means the closing of any of the following: (a) the sale, conveyance or disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company; (b) the effectuation of a transaction or series of related transactions by the Company in which more than 50% of the voting power of the Company is disposed of (other than as a direct result of the issuance of securities by the Company in a capital raising transaction); (c) the consolidation, merger or other business combination of the Company with or into any other entity, immediately following which the prior stockholders of the Company fail to own, directly or indirectly, at least 50% of the voting equity of the surviving entity; (d) a transaction or series of transactions in which any person or "group" (as such term is used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Exchange Act) acquires more than 50% of the voting equity of the Company (other than the issuance of securities by the Company in a capital raising transaction); or (e) a transaction or series of transactions that constitutes or results in a "going private transaction" (as defined in Section 13(e) of the Exchange Act and the regulations thereunder).

Warrants

Each Unit includes a warrant to purchase 50,000 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $0.30 per share. The warrants have a five-year term and may be exercised at any time following issuance. The warrants may be exercised on a cashless basis beginning one year after the closing date of the Offering at any time that the Company fails to have a current prospectus available for immediate resale of the common stock underlying the warrants.

Subject to 30 business days' prior notice to the holders of the warrants, and provided a registration statement is in effect covering the common stock underlying the warrants, all, but not less than all, of the warrants will be callable by the Company at $0.01 per share at any time after the closing price of the Company's common stock exceeds 250% of $0.20 per share for any 20 consecutive trading days and average daily volume during the same period exceeds an average of 150,000 shares per day.

LIFEVANTAGE CORPORATION

FORM OF CONVERTIBLE DEBENTURE

$ __, 2007

Greenwood Village, Colorado

For value received, LIFEVANTAGE CORPORATION, a Colorado corporation (the "Company"), unconditionally promises to pay to __ or its assigns (the "Holder") the principal sum of $ __ with interest on the outstanding principal amount at the rate of eight percent (8%) per annum (subject to adjustment as set forth below), or the maximum rate permissible by law, whichever is less, simple interest, and calculated on the basis of a 360 day year for the actual number of days elapsed. Interest shall commence with the date hereof and shall be due and payable on the dates and in the manner set forth below. The principal balance of this Debenture, together with the accrued interest thereon shall be due and payable on the dates and in the manner set forth below.

This Debenture is one of the convertible debentures (collectively, the "Debentures") referred to in, and is executed and delivered in connection with, those certain Unit Subscription Agreements, dated on or about __, 2007 and executed by the Company and the Holder, among others (as the same may from time to time be amended, modified or supplemented or restated, the "Subscription Agreements"). Additional rights and obligations of the Holder and the Company are set forth in the Subscription Agreement. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Subscription Agreement.

1. Interest; Maturity; Payments; Prepayment; Waiver of Presentment.

(a) Interest. Interest shall commence with the date hereof and shall be due and payable on the last day of each calendar quarter. Interest due hereunder shall be payable in shares of the Company's Common Stock valued at the Market Price (as defined below) on the last day of such quarter provided, however, that interest may be paid in Common Stock only if the Equity Conditions have been met on such quarter-end date or, upon the election of the Company in its discretion, in lawful money of the United States of America to the Holder at the address set forth in the Subscription Agreement. "Market Price" shall mean the ten (10) day average of (i) the last reported closing sale price for the Common Stock as officially reported by the OTC Bulletin Board, if the Common Stock is then traded on the OTC Bulletin Board; or (ii) the last reported closing sale price on the Nasdaq SmallCap or National Market or a national securities exchange, if the Common Stock is then traded on the Nasdaq SmallCap or National Market or a national securities exchange, in each case as officially reported by the Nasdaq SmallCap or National Market or such national securities exchange; or (iii) if the Common Stock is not then traded on the OTC Bulletin Board, the Nasdaq SmallCap Market, the Nasdaq National Market or a national securities exchange, but is then traded in the over-the-counter market, then the average of the last reported bid and asked prices of the Common Stock reported by the National Quotation Bureau, Inc. or similar bureau if the National Quotation Bureau, Inc. is no longer reporting such information.

"Equity Conditions" means the following:

- The Company shall have converted to Common Stock all Debentures from Holders thereof who have properly requested such conversion;
- There will be an effective Registration Statement with respect to the Common Stock underlying the Debentures and any warrants issued by the Company and any Common Stock to be paid as interest hereunder;
- The Common Stock is listed for trading on the American Stock Exchange, the New York Stock Exchange, the NASDAQ National Market, the NASDAQ Small Cap Market or the OTC Bulletin Board (a "Principal Market");
- The Company shall have a sufficient number of authorized but unissued and otherwise unreserved Common Stock to satisfy all potential conversions of Debentures to Common Stock; and
- The payment of interest in Common Stock has been approved by the Company's shareholders, if required by the applicable rules of the Principal Market.

(b) Maturity Date. At any time on or after __, 2010 (the "Maturity Date") and prior to delivery of an Automatic Conversion Notice (as defined in Section 2(b) below), if this Debenture has not been paid in full or converted in accordance with the terms of Section 2 below, the Holder may demand payment of the entire outstanding principal balance and all unpaid accrued interest in cash (a "Payment Demand").

(c) Payments. All payments of principal and interest shall be in shares of Common Stock as provided herein or in lawful money of the United States of America and shall be payable at the address of the Holder set forth in the Subscription Agreement, unless another place of payment shall be specified in writing by the Holder. All payments shall be applied first to any fees or expenses due to the Holder, then to accrued interest, including any interest that accrues after the commencement of a proceeding by or against the Company under Title 11 of the United States Code, and thereafter to the outstanding principal balance hereof. If any payments on this Debenture become due on a Saturday, Sunday, or a public holiday under the laws of the State of Colorado, such payment shall be made on the next succeeding business day and such extension of time shall be included in computing interest in connection with such payment.

(d) Prepayment. Subject to Section 2(c) below, at any time on or prior to the Maturity Date, the Company may pay this Debenture, in whole or in part, by giving Holder and the holders of all other Debentures then outstanding, at least fifteen (15) business days irrevocable written notice prior to such prepayment (the “Prepayment Notice”), and the Company shall pay this Debenture and all other Debentures, in whole or in part, (the “Prepayment Amount”) in accordance with the Company’s notice.

(e) Waiver. The Company hereby waives demand, notice, presentment, protest and notice of dishonor.

2. Conversion.

(a) At Maturity Date by Company. At any time on or after the Maturity Date, if all principal and interest outstanding under this Debenture has not been paid in full, then the Company may, in its discretion, cause the conversion of the entire principal balance of this Debenture and all unpaid interest hereon into shares of the Company’s Common Stock at a rate equal to the lower of the 10 day average closing price for the 10 previous business days or $0.20 per share of Common Stock (the “Conversion Price”), subject to adjustment as set forth herein. The Company shall notify the Holder of such automatic conversion in writing at least five (5) days prior to such conversion (an “Automatic Conversion Notice”).

(b) Optional Conversion by Holder. At any time from the date hereof through the date that this Debenture is paid in full, including at any time after receiving a Prepayment Notice but before receiving the Prepayment Amount, Holder shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to convert the principal balance of this Debenture then outstanding plus accrued but unpaid interest, in whole or in part, into shares of Common Stock at the Conversion Price by delivering to the Company written notice of such conversion as set forth on Appendix A hereto (an “Optional Conversion Notice”).

(c) Conversion Procedures. Upon conversion of this Debenture pursuant to Section 2(a) or 2(b) above, the Holder shall surrender this Debenture, duly endorsed, at the principal office of the Company, and the Company shall, at its expense, following receipt of this Debenture, duly endorsed, promptly deliver or cause to be delivered to the Holder a certificate or certificates (bearing such legends as may be required) representing that number of fully paid and non-assessable shares of Common Stock into which this Debenture may be converted. The conversion of this Debenture shall be deemed to have been made on the date of (i) the Maturity Date pursuant to Section 2(a) above, or (ii) the date of the Optional Conversion Notice pursuant to Section 2(b) above, as applicable, and the Holder shall be treated for all purposes as the record holder of such shares of equity securities as of such applicable date.

(d) Reservation of Shares. The Company covenants and agrees that the shares of Common Stock that may be issued upon the exercise of the rights represented by this Debenture will, upon issuance, be validly issued and outstanding, fully paid and nonassessable, and free from all taxes, liens and charges with respect to the issuance thereof. The Company further covenants and agrees that the Company will at all times during the time that principal or interest is owed pursuant to this Debenture, have authorized and reserved, free from preemptive rights, a sufficient number of shares of its Common Stock to provide for the conversion rights set forth herein. If at any time during the time that this Debenture is outstanding, the number of authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock shall not be sufficient to permit conversion of amounts owed hereunder, the Company will take such corporate action as may, in the opinion of its counsel, be necessary to increase its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock to such number of shares as shall be sufficient for such purposes.

(e) No Fractional Shares. Upon a conversion hereunder, the Company shall not be required to issue stock certificates representing fractions of shares of Common Stock, and in lieu of any fractional shares which would otherwise be issuable, the Company shall issue the next lowest whole number of shares of Common Stock.

3. Mandatory Redemption. If prior to conversion or payment of this Debenture, (i) the Company fails to remain subject to the reporting requirement under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”) for a period of at least 45 consecutive days, (ii) the Company fails to materially comply with the reporting requirements under the Exchange Act for a period of 45 consecutive days, (iii) the Company’s Common Stock is no longer quoted on the OTC Bulletin Board or listed or quoted on a securities exchange, or (iv) a Change of Control is consummated (each a “Mandatory Redemption Event”), the Company will be required to redeem this Debenture in an amount equal to 150% of principal amount hereof plus any accrued but unpaid interest hereon within fifteen (15) days of such Mandatory Redemption Event. “Change of Control” means the existence or occurrence of any of the following: (a) the sale, conveyance or disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company; (b) the effectuation of a transaction or series of related transactions by the Company in which more than 50% of the voting power of the Company is disposed of (other than as a direct result of the issuance of securities by the Company in a capital raising transaction); (c) the consolidation, merger or other business combination of the Company with or into any other entity, immediately following which the prior stockholders of the Company fail to own, directly or indirectly, at least 50% of the voting equity of the surviving entity; (d) a transaction or series of transactions in which any person or “group” (as such term is used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Exchange Act) acquires more than 50% of the voting equity of the Company (other than the issuance of securities by the Company in a capital raising transaction); or (e) a transaction or series of transactions that constitutes or results in a “going private transaction” (as defined in Section 13(e) of the Exchange Act and the regulations thereunder).

4. Adjustments of Conversion Price.

(a) In the event of changes in the outstanding Common Stock of the Company by reason of stock dividends, splits, recapitalizations, reclassifications, combinations or exchanges of shares, separations, reorganizations, liquidations, or the like, the Conversion Price shall be correspondingly adjusted to give the Holder of the Debenture, on exercise for the same aggregate Conversion Price, the total number, class, and kind of shares as the Holder would have owned had the Debenture been exercised prior to the event and had the Holder continued to hold such shares until after the event requiring adjustment. The form of this Debenture need not be changed because of any adjustment in the Conversion Price.

(b) If during the time that principal or interest is owed pursuant to this Debenture, the Company issues or sells Additional Shares of Common Stock (as defined below) other than pursuant to 4(a) above for a price (the “Effective Price”) less than the then effective Conversion Price, then and in each such case, the then existing Conversion Price shall be reduced, as of the opening of business on the date of such issue or sale, to a price equal to such Effective Price. “Additional Shares of Common Stock” shall mean all shares of Common Stock, or options, warrants or other rights to acquire Common Stock, issued by the Company, other than (i) options, warrants or shares of Common Stock issued to employees, directors and consultants as a part of an equity incentive plan or agreement approved by the Company's Board of Directors, (ii) shares of Common Stock issued as a consideration for a merger, acquisition or other business combination approved by the Company's Board of Directors, (iii) options, warrants or shares issued pursuant to any equipment loan or leasing arrangement, real property leasing arrangement or debt financing from a bank or similar financial institution approved by the Company's Board of Directors; (iv) shares issued upon the exercise of an option, warrant or other right to acquire Common Stock pursuant to which an adjustment of the Conversion Price under this Section 4(b) has already been made; and (v) options, warrants or shares issued with respect to which the holders of a majority of the outstanding Debentures waive their antidilution rights under this Section 4(b).

5. Default.

(a) Each of the following events shall be an "Event of Default" hereunder:

(iv) the Company executes an assignment with respect to a majority of its assets;

(vii) the Company fails to redeem the Debenture pursuant to Section 3 hereof within ten (10) business days of a Mandatory Redemption Event.

(b) Upon the occurrence of any Event of Default hereunder, all unpaid principal, accrued interest and other amounts owing hereunder shall, at the option of the Holder, and, in the case of an Event of Default pursuant to Section 5(a)(ii) or (iii) above, automatically, be immediately due, payable and collectible by the Holder pursuant to applicable law.

(c) In the event of any Event of Default hereunder, the Company shall pay all reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs incurred by the Holder in enforcing and collecting this Debenture.
